

Judges Flick and Brown. Wood can

The county of Harrison and circumstances, to the people of which Judge Maxwell is well known, will do better proportionately, while in those counties where the Greenbackers predominate his strong influence is incalculable. A Greenbacker saluted to day:

AN EX-MOSKOW.
"The assertion that Henry S. Walker will be able to hand the Kankasha Greenbackers over to Wilson intact is sheer nonsense. Walker is in the worst possible standing with the Greenbackers. They have never as a body, had any confidence in the sincerity of his professions and his several they think, is a trimmer, and only a militate against them in order to hoist himself into Congress to take a stand as a Democrat. His lack of sincerity and principle, political as well as moral, militates against the exercise of any influence on his part. Even on the stump he has lost prestige among the Groenboekers, so that his address on Laidley, the Charleston Greenback scribbler and Democratic voter, has no influence even among the most Greenbackless of the Greenbackers; and his jeremiads against fusion will not be worth a Kanawha county note.

DEMOCRATIC DISAFFECTION.

The monument that the late Democratic convention in Wheeling reared for the admiration of the State attracts not half the attention that some of the other shafts in the great party cemetery do. The farmer, the merchant, the stock raiser, the coal operator, the capitalist, all regard the nomination of Wheeling tion or which is a menace to their interests. They do not say much about it publicly, but its mention excites no animation and no discussion. The renomination of Snyder and Woods is regarded with positive abhorrence in the breasts of three out of five Democrats in nearly every county in the State. There is scarcely a Democratic attorney in the State who did not feel humiliated at the spectacle of

The prominent candidates for Auditor went home disgusted at the success of the shameful swindle that had made the great of Anditor subordinate to one of inferior importance.

All the friends of education in the State irrespective of party stood aghast at the bargain and sale that sacrificed Col. Batcher, and mortified at the unblushing delivery of the goods.

These facts are patent to the Democrats and Independents of this State: The Register is attempting to suppress them.

...struggling between its duty to itself and its fealty to its party enemies. Every now and then in an ebullition of decency it fulminates a thunderbolt of wrath, generally at the head of mediocrity in the persons named for the Supreme Court, or swoops down in innuendo upon the head of an obsolescent and moribund administration.

Wood county Republicans go into the campaign magnificently equipped. Mr. Frank Beckwith, chairman of the County Committee, is one of the ablest organizers in the State. Another shrewd and very powerful man is Mr. W. L. Cole, for a long time a member of the county committee, and now a member of the State Central Committee.

One of the most influential factors not only in Wood county but more particularly in the entire State, is Mr. M. C. Church. He, like C. D. Hubbard, of Wheeling, is the youngest and hardest worker in the county, contributing largely and uncomplainingly with all his time and his money toward the success of the party of his choice. Mr. Church is in the bravest sense a Republican. HUGK.

—♦♦♦—

A KENTUCKY KILLING

In Which a Woman Figures Conspicuously.

LOUISVILLE August 1.—The Times' Breckenridge, Ky. correspondent writes:

dundage, &c., special says: Intelligence has reached this place of a shooting affair near Burns, this county, resulting in the instant death of Elisha Alexander, the serious wounding of his brother John, and the severe wounding of Mrs. Charlie Peule, sister of Alexander and wife of one of the shooting parties.

Charlie Poole had run away with Miss Alexander and bad feeling was engendered between the families. The Alexanders threatened Poole's life. Saturday young Poole and wife accompanied by his brother John attended a picnic of an adjacent neighborhood, and when returning home that evening in order to cut off some distance turned into a field on Alexander's

The Poole party saw them coming, and having no doubt but that they were about to put their threat against Onley's life into execution, drew revolvers. When the Alexanders came up and began abusing them for coming on the place they opened fire. Elizabeth

Mr. Emma Alexander received three balls in the neck and was killed instantly; John was seriously wounded in the hip and lower part of the body and Mrs. Poole was struck by a wild bullet; and severely hurt. Poole was not arrested.

*****

Democratic Executive Committee.
 NEW YORK, August 1.—The Democratic National Executive Committee at its session

Twenty-fourth street for headquarters. During the meeting a general discussion on the plan of the campaign took place and the following Advisory Campaign Committee to the Executive Committee was appointed: Senators A. A. Gorman, Maryland; M. W. Ransom, North Carolina; B. F. Jonas, Louisiana; J. C. Burghess, Vir-

Lincoln, New York; H. H. Brown, Indiana, and Miles Ross, New Jersey.

An Unbecoming Display.

TOULON, August 1.—There were only two deaths from cholera to-day. Thirty-three cases are now treated in Bona Recontre hospital and 93 in Saint Mandatier hos-

The Legion of Honor gave a festival and display of fireworks in honor of the Mayor. The people are indignant over the matter. They consider it an unbecoming display at this time of misery. Another death from cholera occurred at Monfort.

NEWS & BRIEF.

Three children of James Barges, of Grandstone Island, in the river St. Lawrence, were buried while playing under a bank. All were killed.

The Acting Secretary of the Treasury has issued instructions to the customs officers to declare all rats coming from European ports "suspected of infection," and prevent the landing of them unless clear proof is furnished that they are free from disease and come from non infected ports.